Antarctic Moon by Dan-O at DanoSongs.com

| E7 intro | E7 | A7 | E7 | E7 | A7 | A7 | E7 | E7 | B7 | A7 stop | E7 | B7 |:

You know I took a walk down that dirt road to the house that's falling apart
Went to see that voodoo girl cooking soup in a broth of hearts
You know her potions came over me like the sea
Under an Antarctic moon

You know I took a statue from her garden and a bug from a jar
Made it past the iron-gate, down that lilac tree trail to my car
You know her potions came over me like the sea
Under an Antarctic moon

Solo – E pentatonic blues scale – click here for scale reference

You know her potions came over me like the sea
Under an Antarctic moon
And her potions came over me like the sea
Under an Antarctic moon
Yeah that voodoo girl was blind
But she could see right through me every time
